

Jean-Luc Villamor

1. Why are you Catholic?

- a. I reaffirm my Catholic faith because Catholic teachings and traditions are what, I feel, best encourages my relationship with Christ. While born and raised Catholic, I haven't always practiced my faith and tried other traditions across different denominations and came to the conclusion that no one else really understands the full beauty, power, and purification that the presence of the Eucharist provides.

2. Why are you a musician in church?

- a. Because it is the best way I can use the skills God gave me to serve his people. I studied as a therapist and as a musician and so being able to foster relationships with each other, with God, and help encourage healing all with the environment liturgical music provides was a perfect fit for me.

3. One thing we would never guess about you.

- a. I am a polyglot. Along with speaking English I can also speak and understand Spanish, Tagalog (Filipino), Ilocano, German, Italian, Portuguese, and understand Irish Gaelic and Latin. I love spending my free time learning about languages.
